

After 50 years, the Players are pure gold

Nov 8 2006

AS A self confessed fan, I would like to say how fortunate we are to have The Shinfield Players Theatre in our community.

Recently my husband and I attended a performance of The Golden Years, a 50th anniversary celebration of the theatre.

The presentation concentrated on the musicals performed - a joyful selection from the entire years up to modern day.

It was well sung, smoothly and interestingly staged, with a minimum of costume (the chorus wearing emblazoned T-shirts announcing The Golden Years).

All of this linked with a most interesting and informative dialogue. It was a feast of an evening, we came out happy. That is something in our troubled world.

Long may this oasis in the midst of a new housing estate, flourish and be appreciated.

Thank you to all who make this possible.
