

Football mania kicks off

Nov 7 2001

ONE World Cup, five friends, an infamous penalty shoot-out, and Gary Lineker. Shinfield Players Theatre present an evening full of nostalgia and, of course, football.

An Evening With Gary Lineker transports the audience back to the summer of 1990 and the Italian World Cup - with the soundtrack provided by Pavarotti.

As Nessun Dorma echoed around the stadium it gave both the matches and the tournament a mythic stature.

The play follows Bill and Monica as they escape on holiday to Spain to try and save their failing marriage. But once there, they just get swept away with the football mania.

To add to the confusion, Monica is having an affair with Bill's client Dan, only to discover he is the mirror image of her husband.
